

NovaTech Enterprises

HR-POL-001 | Code of Conduct Policy

1. Purpose

This policy establishes the standards of professional behaviour expected from all employees of NovaTech Enterprises. It applies to all full-time, part-time, and contract staff across all departments and locations globally.

2. Scope

This policy applies to all employees, directors, consultants, and third-party contractors acting on behalf of NovaTech. Violations may result in disciplinary action up to and including termination of employment.

3. Core Conduct Standards

- 3.1 Employees must treat all colleagues, clients, and partners with dignity and respect.
- 3.2 Discrimination, harassment, or bullying of any kind will not be tolerated.
- 3.3 Employees must not engage in activities that create a conflict of interest with company operations.
- 3.4 Confidential company information must not be disclosed to unauthorised third parties.
- 3.5 Company assets, both physical and digital, must be used solely for legitimate business purposes.
- 3.6 All employees are required to report suspected violations to HR or via the anonymous ethics hotline.

4. Social Media and Public Communications

Employees must not post content that misrepresents NovaTech, discloses confidential information, or brings the company into disrepute. Personal opinions shared online must be clearly stated as such and not attributed to NovaTech.

5. Disciplinary Process

Breaches of this policy will be investigated by the HR department in coordination with line managers. Outcomes may range from a written warning to summary dismissal depending on the severity of the breach. Employees have the right to appeal decisions within 14 calendar days.

6. Review

This policy is reviewed annually by the Chief People Officer. Last reviewed: March 2026. Next review due: March 2027. Policy owner: Human Resources Department.
